Founded in 1993 and serving all of Franklin County, including Ottawa, Princeton, Richmond, Pomona, Wellsville, Centropolis and Williamsburg, Habitat for Humanity of Franklin County (HFHOFK) is a locally run affiliate of Habitat for Humanity International, a nonprofit, ecumenical Christian housing organization that provides decent affordable housing for people in need. This ends the cycle of poverty one family at a time by making each partner family proud homeowners. Another program is A Brush with Kindness (ABWK), where Habitat helps low-income homeowners with minor exterior repairs. Habitat is not a giveaway program. Habitat houses are financed at no profit and no interest, thereby making it affordable for these families.

Through family nurturing, Habitat is able to help these families learn to maintain quality housing both structurally and financially. Habitat depends on a cooperative community, supportive commercial environment, dedicated individuals, and the sweat equity of the future homeowners to construct simple, well-built, energy efficient homes.

In the past 20 plus years Habitat has built 19 new homes and remodeled, painted, and provided minor but necessary improvements for scores of families in Franklin County.
